SECURITY - LEVEL ATTRIBUTION (R5 CLASS)

Performance Commentary for the Quarter Ended December 31, 2025 (Attribution vs. Russell 1000 Growth Index)

Sector: Sector allocation – positive / Security selection – positive

- From a sector allocation perspective, overweight allocations to the Health Care and Communication Services sectors contributed to relative performance.
- Security selection in the Information Technology, Communication Services and Consumer Discretionary sectors contributed to relative performance. Conversely, security selection in the Health Care and Industrials sectors detracted from relative performance.

Growth stocks typically are more volatile than value stocks; however, value stocks have a lower expected growth rate in earnings and sales. Quantitative models may not perform as expected and may result in losses for the Fund. Investing in foreign markets may involve heightened risk due to currency fluctuations and economic and political risks. To the extent the Fund invests more heavily in particular sectors, its performance will be sensitive to factors affecting those sectors. Information Technology sector companies may face intense competition and rapid product obsolescence; have limited product lines, markets, financial resources or personnel; and lose patent, copyright and trademark protections. Although the Fund is managed pursuant to a tax management strategy, the Fund's investments could create capital gains. The use of futures contracts for cash management may subject the Fund to losing more money than invested. The Fund participates in a securities lending program. The Fund's incorporation of environmental, social and/or governance (ESG) considerations in its investment strategy may cause it to underperform funds that do not incorporate these considerations. Please see the prospectus for a complete discussion of the Fund's risks. There can be no assurances that the investment objectives of this Fund will be met.

Important Information: All investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. Indexes are unmanaged and one cannot invest directly in an index. Please note that the recent performance of the securities market has helped produce short-term returns that are not typical and may not continue in the future.

A portion of fees charged to the R5 Class of the Fund has been waived since Fund inception. Performance prior to waiving fees was lower than actual returns shown for periods when fees were waived. Specific information about any Fund may be found at americanbeaconfunds.com or in the prospectus.
