Investing in medium-capitalization stocks may involve greater volatility and lower liquidity than larger company stocks. Investing in foreign markets may involve heightened risk due to currency fluctuations and economic and political risks. Investing in dividend-paying stocks may result in less earnings growth or capital appreciation than investing in non-dividend paying stocks. Because the Fund may invest in fewer issuers than a more diversified portfolio, the fluctuating value of a single holding may have a greater effect on the value of the Fund. To the extent the Fund invests more heavily in particular sectors, its performance will be sensitive to factors affecting those sectors. Information Technology sector companies may face intense competition and rapid product obsolescence; have limited product lines, markets, financial resources or personnel; and lose patent, copyright and trademark protections. The use of futures contracts for cash management may subject the Fund to losing more money than invested. The Fund participates in a securities lending program. Please see the prospectus for a complete discussion of the Fund's risks. There can be no assurances that the investment objectives of this Fund will be met.

Alpha is a measure of the Fund's expected performance versus the benchmark, adjusted for relative risk. Beta is a measure of the Fund's volatility versus the benchmark. Sharpe Ratio is a measure of the Fund's return per unit of total risk. Standard Deviation is a measure of the historical volatility of the Fund's returns.

The Morningstar Style Box™ reveals a fund's current investment strategy. For equity funds, the vertical axis is based on market capitalization of the Fund's holdings (large, mid and small); the horizontal axis shows growth and valuation analysis of the Fund's holdings (value, blend and growth).

For each fund with at least a three-year history, Morningstar calculates a Morningstar Rating™ based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a fund's monthly performance (including the effects of sales charges, loads and redemption fees), placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The top 10% of funds in each category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. (Each share class is counted as a fraction of one fund within the scale and rated separately, which may cause slight variations in the distribution percentages.) The Overall Morningstar Rating for a fund is derived from a weighted average of performance figures associated with its three-, five- and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. In the U.S.-domiciled Large Value category, the American Beacon The London Company Income Equity Fund (R5 Class) was rated 3 stars out of 1,048 funds overall. The fund was rated 2 stars out of 1,048 funds; 2 stars out of 983 funds and 3 stars out of 823 funds for the three-, five- and 10-year periods, respectively.
