SECTOR-LEVEL ATTRIBUTION (Y CLASS)

Performance Commentary for the Quarter Ended March 31, 2026 (Attribution vs. Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index)

- The Fund outperformed its benchmark, the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index, by 8 basis points.
- The Fund's overweight allocation to non-agency mortgage-backed securities contributed to relative performance. Additionally, security selection in asset-backed securities and commercial mortgage-backed securities were accretive to performance.
- Conversely, an overweight allocation to the Financials sector and an underweight allocation to agency MBS detracted from relative performance.

The use of fixed-income securities entails interest rate and credit risks. Investments in high yield securities (commonly referred to as "junk bonds"), including loans, restricted securities and floating-rate securities, are subject to greater levels of credit, interest rate, market and liquidity risks than investment-grade securities. Interest rate risk is the risk that debt securities will decrease in value with increases in market interest rates. Credit risk is the risk that a debt issuer will fail to make timely payment of interest or principal; if the credit rating of an issuer declines, then the price of its debt securities may also decline. Investing in foreign markets may involve heightened risk due to currency fluctuations and economic and political risks. Geopolitical and other events have led to market disruptions causing adverse changes in the value of investments broadly. Changes in value may be temporary or may last for extended periods. The Fund may have high portfolio turnover risk, which could increase the Fund's transaction costs and possibly have a negative impact on performance. Please see the prospectus for a complete discussion of the Fund's risks. There can be no assurances that the investment objectives of this Fund will be met.

Important Information: All investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. Indexes are unmanaged and one cannot invest directly in an index.

A portion of fees charged to each Class of the Fund has been waived since Fund inception. Performance prior to waiving fees was lower than actual returns shown for periods when fees were waived. Specific information about any Fund may be found at americanbeaconfunds.com or in the prospectus.

The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is a broad-based benchmark that measures the investment grade, U.S. dollar-denominated, fixed-rate taxable bond market.

S&P credit ratings for long-term obligations (or issuers thereof) are AAA, AA, A, BBB, BB, B, CCC, CC, C and D in decreasing order. For example, obligations rated AAA are judged to be of the highest quality,

BBB to be of medium grade, CCC are judged to be speculative and obligations rated D are in default. Obligations rated in one of the four highest categories are considered to be investment grade while all other ratings are considered non-investment grade.
