SECURITY-LEVEL ATTRIBUTION (R5 CLASS)

Performance Commentary for the Quarter Ended September 30, 2026 (Attribution vs. MSCI Emerging Markets Index[1])

Security selection – negative | Sector allocation – negative

- Security selection in the Information Technology and Industrials sectors detracted from relative performance. Conversely, security selection in the Health Care sector contributed to relative performance.
- Underweight allocations to the Financials and Energy sectors and an overweight allocation to the Industrials sector detracted from relative performance. In contrast, an overweight allocation to the Health Care sector contributed to relative performance.

Investing in foreign and emerging markets may involve heightened risk due to currency fluctuations and economic and political risks. Geopolitical and other events have led to market disruptions causing adverse changes in the value of investments broadly. Changes in value may be temporary or may last for extended periods. To the extent the Fund invests more heavily in a particular country or geographic region, its performance will be sensitive to factors affecting that country or region. To the extent the Fund invests more heavily in particular sectors, its performance will be sensitive to factors affecting those sectors. Information Technology sector companies may face intense competition and rapid product obsolescence; have limited product lines, markets, financial resources or personnel; and lose patent, copyright and trademark protections. The Fund's incorporation of environmental, social and/or governance (ESG) considerations in its investment strategy may cause it to underperform funds that do not incorporate these considerations. The Fund participates in a securities lending program. Please see the prospectus for a complete discussion of the Fund's risks. There can be no assurances that the investment objectives of the Fund will be met.

Important Information: All investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. Indexes are unmanaged and one cannot invest directly in an index. Please note that the recent performance of the securities market has helped produce short-term returns that are not typical and may not continue in the future.

A portion of fees charged to the R5 Class of the Fund has been waived since Fund inception. Performance prior to waiving fees was lower than actual returns shown for periods when fees were waived. Specific information about any Fund may be found at americanbeaconfunds.com or in the prospectus.

1. The MSCI® Emerging Markets Index is a market capitalization weighted index of companies that are representative of the market structure of developing countries in Latin America, Asia, Eastern Europe, the Middle East and Africa. The Index reflects the reinvestment of dividends after the deduction of withholding taxes, using a tax rate applicable to non-resident individuals who do not benefit from double taxation treaties. The Index converts local currencies into U.S. dollars and thus includes the performance of local currencies relative to U.S. dollars.
